Fairies have been wearing Flower Crowns

for years and they tell the best stories ever because they understand flower talk. Come and learn a little flower talk and how to make a flower crown that could actually be worn on your adventures-a crown you could dance the night away in as well as ward off bad spirits with. Did flowers or fairies come first?!

You will take away your Flower Crown, along with the ideas to make your own

£25

Saturday 5th March Drop-in 2.00-6.00pm

Saturday May 14th
7.00-10.00pm

Spend a Saturday night with Floriography at Copper and Corduroy. Creating a group using a range of vintage vessels.

Floral Tableau

Together we will create a beautiful floral adventure, full of old and new. There will then be opportunities to paint, write, take photographs, sketch or simply observe. You will all take home one of your flower creations to keep as a future muse. Please bring anything you would like to be part of the story and any tools you might need for creating. No experience of flower arranging is needed just a love for colour, shapes and beautiful things.

Tuesday
24th May

You will take away your unique Summer flower Posy

Sunday 12th June 11.00-3.30pm - with light lunch

Create a unique narrative that comes alive through flowers – focus on two chapters of what could be the beginning of the best story ever:

Handtied Posy Making and Corsage Making

(developing a flower thread that compliments your plot).

You will take away your hand-tied posy and pin corsage £45

Sunday 26th June 2.30-5.30pm

Succulent jewellery

Succulents are 'cool' right now- we aren't very cool but we are loving this thing where you use succulents to create jewellery. We just like flowery related things that create long lasting memories and stories. Come and make a 'cool' succulent trinket necklace and succulent brooch with the 'uncool' and over sentimental.

You will take away your succulent creation £40
